SAVANNAH, Ga. - The Armstrong State University women's golf team welcomes in 15 other schools from around the Southeast for the 2015 Armstrong Pirate Women's Golf Invitational on Monday and Tuesday at Savannah Quarters Country Club in Pooler, Ga.

The Pirates have a top field for the 2015 edition of the Women's Invitational, including defending NCAA Division II national champion Lynn University and six other teams - Florida Tech, Nova Southeastern, Flagler, West Florida, the host Pirates and Saint Leo - that participated in last year's NCAA South Regional, offering a preview of the 2015 regional which will be hosted at Savannah Quarters in May.

Other teams in the tournament include Peach Belt Conference schools UNC Pembroke, Lander, North Georgia and Columbus State; South Atlantic Conference schools Newberry and Carson-Newman; West Georgia from the Gulf South Conference; Florida Southern from the Sunshine State Conference and Mount Olive from Conference Carolinas.

The host Pirates are the defending champion in the tournament after beating Flagler by four strokes. This is the fifth year of the tournament - UNC Pembroke won the tournament title in 2011 and 2012, while the Pirates won in 2013 and last year.

Play will begin with an 8:30 a.m. shotgun start on Monday with 18 holes action. The tournament will conclude on Tuesday with a single round of 18 holes beginning at 8:30 a.m.
